

BATTLE OF THE BANDS: GIVE HOPE ROCK FOR PCF

For Immediate Release: New York, NY
Contact: Nancy Joselson, T. 914-777-3127
Mamaroneck, NY

Pediatric Cancer Foundation will rock to '80's flavored funk as well as songs by the Beatles, Clapton, and Stones, Friday, May 10, 2013 at Mamaroneck Beach & Yacht Club. Four bands including: The Del Bocas; Toasted Flakes; The New Irrelevants and Route 9 are donating their time and music to benefit children with cancer.

Twenty four year old pediatric cancer survivor Amanda Luiso will be our key note speaker.

PCF President, Cheryl Rosen, applauds Event Chairs: Stefanie Bartell-Zednik and Ralph Zednik, Evette and Keith Guerzon, Dana and Michael Hokin, Shari and Michael Philipps, Mindy and Steven Shulman, Bonnie and Henry Shyer, Suellen and Howard Singer, and Jennifer and George Stone for "their endless spirit, commitment, and energy not only creating and producing this event but never losing sight of our mission to: ... hold the hand of a child and help make a difference in our fight against childhood cancer."

Pediatric Cancer Foundation is a nonprofit organization that funds treatment, fellowships and equipment for pediatric cancer research. The Foundation supports several New York area hospitals and their satellite facilities including: New York Presbyterian Morgan Stanley Children's Hospital; Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center; Steven and Alexandra Cohen Children's Medical Center of New York; Stephen D. Hassenfeld Children's Center for Cancer and Blood Disorders at NYU Langone Medical Center; and Maria Fareri Children's Hospital at Westchester Medical Center

RSVP by May 1, 2013, to: www.pcfweb.org/battle